Dr. Mike Licona: “Reflections on the Debate Wars”

In recent years debates between Christian scholars and high-profile skeptics and atheists have become a common form of intellectual entertainment.

Are such debates mostly publicity events, or can they be informative, edifying and valuable for Christians?

Dr. Mike Licona, a New Testament historian and the Apologetics Coordinator for the North American Mission Board, discusses his experiences debating well-known skeptics and atheists including Elaine Pagels, Bart Ehrman, Shabir Ally, Richard Carrier, and others.
